

A TARGETED APPROACH TO REDUCING ENVIRONMENTAL CANCER RISKS IN PENNSYLVANIA: A WEBINAR SERIES BRIEF

OVERVIEW

A Targeted Approach to Reducing Environmental Cancer Risks in Pennsylvania was a 5-session webinar series hosted by the Pennsylvania Cancer Coalition's Environmental Health Working Group and the Cancer and Environment Network. Each webinar addressed specific evidence-based interventions from the working group's action plan.

HIGHLIGHTS

160 TOTAL REGISTRANTS ACROSS PENNSYLVANIA

267 MINUTES OF PROFESSIONAL PRESENTATIONS

75 MINUTES OF Q&A DISCUSSIONS

PQAS AND ACT 48 CREDITS OFFERED

SESSION DETAILS

01

The Clinician's Role in Environmental Health Assessment

This webinar educated healthcare providers on the critical role of environmental and social determinants in cancer risk assessment.

02

Healthy Homes for Healthy Kids

This session explored how children are uniquely vulnerable to environmental toxics and provided actionable steps to reducing exposure to carcinogens.

03

Empowering the Public with Data & Tools

This webinar aimed empower the public with essential knowledge and practical tools to understand and mitigate environmental carcinogen exposure risks.

04

A Data-Driven Deep Dive for Professionals

This webinar provided a data-driven overview for professionals, offering insights into critical exposures, high-risk areas, and the latest research on emerging chemical threats.

05

Ensuring Safe Drinking Water for All Pennsylvanians

This webinar equipped Pennsylvanians with vital knowledge about the safety of their drinking water.

Click the link below to view all session recordings:
<https://tinyurl.com/4h225he9>